MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY

Applicants to the one-year School of Medical Technology must have completed high school, three years in an accredited college and meet several other specific requirements. Graduates of the course are eligible to take the national examination of the Board of Registry of Medical Technologist which leads to the M. T. (ASCP) registration of the technologist. The School is approved by the Council on Medical Education and Hospitals of the American Medical Association. For more information, contact the Director of the School of Medical Technology.

NURSE ANESTHETISTS

Applicants to the 18-month School for Nurse Anesthetists must be high school graduates, graduates of an accredited School of Nursing, have a certificate of registration in Nebraska and meet several other specific requirements. Graduates are eligible to take the National Boards for Nurse Anesthetists. The School is accredited by the American Association of Nurse Anesthetists. Contact the Director of the School of Anesthesia for additional information.
TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES AT CREIGHTON MEMORIAL ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL

Specialized or professional training is readily available to employees through the numerous educational facilities at Creighton Memorial St. Joseph’s Hospital. Each year many employees increase their personal growth and career potential through courses in X-Ray Technology, Anesthesia, Licensed Practical Nurse, Laboratory Technology, Registered Nurse, Medical Technology, Nurse Aide and Attendant. The Personnel Office will be happy to help you secure more information about the various types of training.

Employees are encouraged to gain more knowledge in the field of their choice through the excellent facilities of the local schools, colleges and universities.

SCHOOL OF NURSING

Applicants to the Hospital’s three-year Diploma School of Nursing must be high school graduates and meet several other specific requirements. Graduates are eligible to write the State Board Examinations for licensure as a Registered Nurse. The School of Nursing is accredited by the Nebraska State Board of Nursing and the National League for Nursing. Admission information can be obtained from the Director of Nursing Education in the School of Nursing Office.

PRACTICAL NURSING

St. Joseph’s Hospital is an affiliating hospital of the Omaha Vocational School of Practical Nursing to provide supervised clinical experience for students. Graduates of the one-year program are eligible to write the Nebraska State Licensing Examination for Practical Nurses. The School is accredited by the Nebraska State Board of Nursing. For more information contact the Hospital’s Clinical Instructor of the Practical Nurse Program.

X-RAY TECHNOLOGY

Applicants to the two-year Certificate School of X-Ray Technology must be high school graduates and meet several other specific requirements. Graduates are eligible to take the National Boards Examination for Radiology Technicians. The School is accredited by the American Registry of Radiology Technicians, The American Medical Association and the Veterans Administration. For admission information, contact the Director, Department of Radiology.